4. MARGARET E.³ GEORTLER (JOSEPH², JOSEPH¹) was born 26 March 1888 in Ewan, Gloucester County, New Jersey³², and died 2 April 1916 in Penns Grove, Salem County, New Jersey³². She married WILLIAM A. CANNAN, JR. 19 November 1901 in Mullica Hill, Gloucester County, New Jersey³³, son of WILLIAM CANNAN and CATHERINE SWIFT. He was born August 1883 in New Jersey³⁴.

Notes for MARGARET E. GEORTLER:

Mrs. Maggie Guertler Canan (sic) passed away after an illness of only two days of pneumonia at her home at Penn's Grove last Saturday. Mrs. Canan (sic) was born at Ewan and her whole life had been spent there until a year ago when Mr. Canan moved his family to Penn's Groe. Mrs. Canan's sudden death is keenly felt by her family and friends. The funeral was held on Tuesday morning at the Catholic Church, at Mullica Hill, and was very largely attended, interment being in the adjoining cemetery. Mrs. Canan leaves to mourn her loss thre small children, the youngest being three months old, and aged father, Josep Guertler, who has made his home with the daughter ever since Mrs. Guertler's death. She also leaves one sister, Mrs. Paul Yeager, of Penn's Grove, and two brothers, Martin Guertler, of Mullica Hill, and Joseph Guertler, of Camden.

Marriage Notes for MARGARET GEORTLER and WILLIAM CANNAN:

Cannan - Geortler

A very pretty but quiet wedding was solemnized in the Holy Name Church, Mullica Hill, on Wednesday morning Nov. 20, when Miss Margaret E. Geortler and Wm. Cannan, Jr., were united in marriage by Rev. Father O. Farrel. The bride entered the church on the arm of her brother Joseph, whom she gave away. They were met at the altar by the groom. After the ceremony the happy couple received the heartiest congratulations of all present and started on a trip through Penna.

When they return they will reside on Mr. Cannan's farm near this place. The bride was attired in a lovely gown of white Brussels net over taffeta silk, and wore a picture hat of white silk and carried a white prayer book. She was attended by Sibina Glifford, a cousin of the groom. The bridesmaid wore white Parisian lawn and pink sash. The groom wore the conventional black. The bride received many beautiful and useful presents.
