

NORTH CAROLINIAN BRIDE OF GEORGE B. KREKELER

California News Service

TAFT—Miss Sheila Clare McCabe of Asheville, N.C., was united in marriage with George Bernard Krekeler of Taft, at a Nuptial Mass in the St. Eugene's Catholic Church in Asheville. The Rev. Ralph Neagle performed the ceremony at which the couple received a special papal blessing.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Nicholas McCabe of 126 Red Oak Road, Asheville. The bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Krekeler, reside at 413 Lierly Ave., Taft.

Mr. McCabe gave his daughter in marriage. She chose a ballerina length gown of lace with fitted bodice. The bell skirt, with panels of tulle, ended in a scalloped hemline. Her veil fell from a jeweled tiara and she carried a bouquet of white orchids.

Miss Eileen McCabe was her sister's only attendant. Joseph E. Horton of Huntsville, Ala., was best man. Ushers were John Nicholas McCabe Jr., of New Orleans, brother of the bride and Ernest Anderson of Huntsville.

A reception was held in the Green Room at the Grove Park Inn. The new Mrs. Krekeler is a graduate of St. Genevieve-of-the-Pines High School in Asheville and St. Mary-of-the-Wood College in Indiana. The groom is a graduate of St. Mary's Grammar School in Taft, Taft High School, Taft College and the University of California.

After a two-week motor trip through New Orleans and other points of interest in the South and Las Vegas, the couple will reside in Phoenix, Ariz.

MRS. GEORGE B. KREKELER

Tip to Anglers

EAST LANSING, Mich. (UPI)—Skillful—or lucky—fishermen should use low temperatures when cooking their catch, food experts at Michigan State University say. A hot griddle should be used only for browning.