

THE DIAL

KANSAS STATE
HISTORICAL SOCIETY

OCTOBER NUMBER
1917

CONTENTS

OCTOBER, 1917

In Memoriam (Verse).....	Alumnus	1
Reverend Joseph Francis Hill, S. J.....		2
The Sardinian Spoliation of the Papal States, Leo V. Jacks.....		10
An Editor—or Something.....	G. N. Kramer	23
To Lieutenant William T. Fitzsimons (verse).....
.....	Bernard M. Kirke	28
Lieutenant William T. Fitzsimons.....		29
The Flight of Youth (Verse).....	B. M. K.	33
The Ethics of War.....	Mémoed Jaccard	33
Book Reviews.....		36
Editorials.....		38
Alumni Notes.....		41
College Notes.....		48
Athletic Notes.....		53
Junior Notes.....		55

THE DIAL

PUBLISHED MONTHLY

By the Students of St. Mary's College, Kansas

Subscription, $1.50 a year in advance

Advertising rates on application

Address THE DIAL, St. Mary's College, St. Mary's, Kansas

Entered at the postoffice at St. Mary's, Kansas, as second class matter

Ross M. Kavanaugh, Freshman '16, has joined the Aviation Corps.

Frederick Armstrong, A. B. '16, who was studying medicine at Creighton University last year, has joined the boys at Camp Funston.

Information has been received of the following St. Mary's men at Fort Sill:

George Bannantine, Freshman '17, Corporal in Battery D.

Frank Gerhart, English '12, Battery A.

Leo Scanlan, A. B. '13, Battery D.

Thomas Wilder, English '12, Battery C.

George McNulty, Fourth High '17, Battery D.

Thomas Scanlan, English, '13, Sergeant in Battery F.

Robert Keefe, A. B. '14, is with the Aviation Corps, Fort Snelling.

John R. Thomas, '10, received the commission of First Lieutenant at Fort Riley, and is reported to be on his way to France.

The friends of Dan R. Brosnan, A. B. '10, will be pleased to read the following from the Indiana Catholic and Record of August 31:

Lieutenant Daniel Reynolds Brosnan of the Quartermasters' Corps, National Army, left Indianapolis Wednesday for Louisville, Ky., to take up his duties at Camp Taylor. Lieutenant Brosnan entered the officers' training camp at Ft. Harrison three months ago, joining the Ninth Provisional Regiment. On passing a most successful examination, he was commissioned to the rank he now holds. Lieutenant Brosnan is a graduate of St. Mary's College, Kansas, conducted by the Jesuit Fathers. His fine business ability and experience will doubtless prove of a great advantage to him in the Quartermasters' Corps, where business efficiency counts for much. Lieutenant Brosnan is well known in Catholic social circles, and his genial, easy-going disposition has made him a host of friends who are all his well-wishers and hope that he will have the highest honors that can come to him.

Arthur McCabe, Fourth English '17, is one of Company K., First Battalion, Second Regiment, Camp Paul Jones, Great Lakes station.

Michael O'Leary, English '14, is with the boys in khaki at Weeping Water, Nebraska. If Mike's right arm is as strong as it was when he pitched for St. Mary's, he will be a wonder at the bomb tossing game.

Robert E. Hackett, First High '12, is chief boatswain's mate