Notes for MARGARET CATHERINE MCCABE:

GENSHEIMER, MARGARET A. "Peggy", 83, of Atlantic City, passed away on Sunday, March 31, 2002, at Shore Memorial Hospital in Somers Point, following a very brief illness.

Born in Philadelphia, Mrs. Gensheimer had been an Atlantic City resident since she was 2 years old. She was quite knowledgeable about the history of Atlantic City, its' neighborhoods and local color. Peggy was an active- longtime member of St. Nicholas of Tolentine Church, the Altar and Rosary Sodality, a member of the Catholic Daughters of America, the Hibernians Organizations and had been active in the old Holy Spirit Grammar School. She was also a very proud volunteer of the Atlantic City Medical Center Baby Cuddler program.

Peggy is predeceased by her husband Alvin Gensheimer and her parents James and Gertrude McCabe. She leaves behind three daughters, Alice Torres of Somers Point, Peggy Smith of Tuckerton, and Trudy Gensheimer of Phoenix, AZ; a brother, Thomas McCabe of Absecon; her sister, Gertrude McCabe of Pennsauken; three grandchildren, Angela Murphy of Blackwood, Amy Torres of Somers Point and Kimberly Smith of Baltimore, MD; and one great granddaughter, Alexis Torres of Somers Point and several nieces and nephews.

The Funeral Mass for Mrs. Gensheimer will be celebrated 12 noon Thursday, April 4, 2002 at St. Nicholas of Tolentine Church, Tennessee and Pacific Avenues. Friends may call from 11 a.m. at the Church. Rite of Committal will be in Holy Cross Cemetery, Mays Landing. Arrangements by the Gormley Funeral Home, 2706 Atlantic Ave., Atlantic City.
